2018 Theme:

“One in the Spirit” – Psalm 133:1

To our Visitors:

We welcome you here this morning and hope that you will make plans to come back at your earliest convenience. Presently, our congregation has no minister, elders, or deacons. We are prayerfully working toward that goal. We do not go beyond the limitations and instructions set forth for the one and true Church.

If you have any questions as to our practice or beliefs, please do not hesitate to ask any of the men of the congregation. We will be happy to answer any and all questions you may have. We hope that your time with us will be pleasant and uplifting.

"Thank God for you!"

Paul frequently told members of the body of Christ (i.e., his fellow Christians or "church friends") that he thanked God for them. To three congregations of brethren and two friends in particular, he said, "I thank my God" for you in my prayers (Rom. 1:8; 1 Cor. 1:4; Phil. 1:3; 2 Tim. 1:3; Phile. 4). To three other congregations of brethren, he said, "We give thanks to God always for you" (1 Thess. 1:2; 3:9; 2 Thess. 2:13; Eph. 1:16; Col. 1:3). Do you think he really did? I mean, do you think that he really said to God in his prayers, "Thank you for him/her/them" by name?

What would happen to the church today if we did two things: (1) If we told each other (i.e., our fellow Christians or "church friends") that we thanked God for them, and then (2) If we actually did spend time in our prayers thanking God specifically for each other by name? At least three things would surely result: (1) It would draw us closer to God; (2) It would draw us closer to each other; (3) It would bring God's blessings upon all of us! So, how about it? Do you (will you) give thanks to God for your brethren?

Weekly Memory Verse:

“For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon Me, and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart.”

Jeremiah 29:11
