“One in the Spirit” – Psalm 133:1

To our Visitors:

We welcome you here this morning and hope that you will make plans to come back at your earliest convenience. Presently, our congregation has no minister, elders, or deacons. We are prayerfully working toward that goal. We do not go beyond the limitations and instructions set forth for the one and true Church.

If you have any questions as to our practice or beliefs, please do not hesitate to ask any of the men of the congregation. We will be happy to answer any and all questions you may have. We hope that your time with us will be pleasant and uplifting.

AGAPE LOVE (part 2)

Paul discusses this in the closing verses of Romans chapter 12. Christians were soon to be the objects of scorn, and Nero was about to blame the Christians for burning Rome. In addition to this persecution from the pagans, the Christians had been and were the focus of abuse and persecution from the Jews. What reaction did God expect from the citizens of His kingdom?

It was NOT a reaction of retaliation. The clearest direction can be summed up in Paul's words, "Be not overcome with evil, but overcome evil with good." The gravest danger we face is that when others treat us in ungodly ways, we feel we have a right to respond and repay them. Someone once said, "It is never right to do wrong," and these words capture the apostle's thought. Enemies are under the eternal judgment of God. Why should we ever join them in doing wrong?

Our response? What does AGAPE love demand of us? Not a emotional response, but simply to treat them with kindness-to respond as Jesus did toward His enemies. But how do I deal with the anger? I turn it over to God. Paul reminded them that vengeance is God's, and He will always repay. We win when we overcome evil with good!
