2018 Theme:

“One in the Spirit” – Psalm 133:1

To our Visitors:

We welcome you here this morning and hope that you will make plans to come back at your earliest convenience. Presently, our congregation has no minister, elders, or deacons. We are prayerfully working toward that goal. We do not go beyond the limitations and instructions set forth for the one and true Church.

If you have any questions as to our practice or beliefs, please do not hesitate to ask any of the men of the congregation. We will be happy to answer any and all questions you may have. We hope that your time with us will be pleasant and uplifting.

Christians that “Mingle”

The Greek language has some cool words. Some are cool because they are the basis for some of our English words (like dunamis for dynamite). Some are cool because they are compound words that bring out some interesting literal meanings.

In First Corinthians 5:11, Christians are instructed “not to keep company with” a brother who becomes impenitently enslaved to a life of habitual sin. The expression “not to keep company with” comes from one Greek word, sunanamignumi, which is a compound of three Greek words:

Mignumi (“mingle, mix”) and ana (“up”) and sun (“with, together”). The word means “mingle up together with.” We are not to “mingle up together with” brethren living in sin.

However, what does that imply? It implies that Christians would naturally and definitely should be “mingling up together with” each other in social and friendly settings. So, on the positive side, are you mingling with your fellow Christians on a regular basis outside of worship?

Weekly Memory Verse:

“God is not a man, that He should lie,
 Nor a son of man, that He should repent.
 Has He said, and will He not do?
 Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?
